

Effectively Leading Hybrid Teams

HALF-DAY VIRTUAL WORKSHOP

“Solid workshop. Just what our leaders needed to help recalibrate and reenergize their teams”.

Description:

As we continue to navigate today's workplace with a global pandemic still looming, leaders are faced with unique challenges; effectively leading a hybrid team being first and foremost.

This interactive virtual workshop will help leaders practically create (or recreate) an environment of trust, accountability, and collaboration with their teams.

Topics include:

- Latest research on hybrid team leadership
- Building trust, inclusion, and engagement
- Communication best practices
- Team foundation building
- Applying the concept of “fairness” to hybrid workplaces

Objectives:

Upon completion of this topic area, participants will return to work and be able to:

- Understand the differences in leading face to face vs hybrid teams
- Initiate practical strategies to build trust, inclusion, and engagement
- Apply the concept of fairness to hybrid workplaces
- Have a plan to implement their learnings back on the job with their teams.
